CTING ROMANCE.-With the death of De Bryan, the young man who died recently at Moreau, from having his legs crushed by the cars, is con-nected an affecting bit of romance, which has been related to us as follows:

related to us as follows:

After his mangled limbs had been amputated, his mind aroused to the terrible consciousness that he must die, and he implored the bystanders to "send for his Lucy." "Where is she? I must see her before I die. Let me see her, and I can die in peace"—were his frequent ejaculations and entreaties. His parents were asked what he meant—if he was married. To which they replied that he was not; and that they knew nothing of the person he named as "Lucy." After his death, it came to light that he had been married about three months, to a lady belonging to one of the first families in Lansingburg. His wife's parents had opposed their marriage, on the ground of his lack of means; and the consequence of this opposition was, the young couple were clandestinely united, and their marriage kept a profound secret. Young Bryan had placed all his earnings ($550) in the hands of his wife, it being their intention when $600 had been accumulated, to publicly announce their marriage. But, alas! the day on which they intended to thus claim and expected to receive the forgiveness of offended parents never arrived.—Whitehall Chronicle.

Mork Democratic Proscription.—The Democratic Jesuit Postmaster General, Mr. Campbell, has removed John M. Gibbony from the Post Office at Duncansville, Blair county, and appointed Wm. Vaughn, in his place. They are both Democrates, but the former is a Know-Nothing and the latter a Roman Catholic! The Hollidaysburg Whig characterizes the removal of Mr. Gibbony as "one of the most high-handed outrages on public opinion, ever committed by a public functionary in this country. Mr. Gibbony received the office from Campbell, and a more unexceptionable and worthy citizen does not live within the limits of the county. He has the confidence of the people to an unlimited degree, having been twice the candidate of his party in 'Old Huntingdon' county for a seat in the Legislature, at both elections polling a heavy vote. By appointment of Gov. Shunk, he held the office of Register and Recorder of Blair county, and at the late election was triumphantly elected county Surveyor, notwithstanding he had always been a democrat. The edict had gone forth that no man who was suspected of being a 'Know-Nothing' should hold office under the defunct and repudiated dynasty of Pierce, Campbell & Co. In consequence of these suspicions he was removed, and a Roman Cartiolic appointed to take his place, regardless of public sentiment, and contrary to the known wishes of the people where the office is located. So long as such men as Mr. Gibbony are proscribed for holding certain religious and political opinions, just so long will the people cast their suffrages against the 'powers that be.' The resories will not stand it, and rebuke after rebuke must come, until they feel and know how to appreciate American citizens and true American sentiment. WOULD RAYHER BE IN SLAVERY.—The Cincinnati (Exzete of Wednesday has the following:

In the police court yesterday, a colored man na ned John Stewart was arraigned on charge of stealing a quantity of clothing from an elderly colored woman. Stewart plead guilty, and offered in mitigation that he was out of fouds and food, and had taken this course to provide himself with the necessaries of life. He stated to the court that a short time since he was a slave in Raleigh, North Carolina, and upon being informed of the kind treatment he would receive from the abolitionists in the North if he would become a free man, he concluded to purchase himself, and did so at a cost of $900. He left his master and came to Ohio. "Since I c me here," continued Stewart, "I have been kicked about and abused by all classes of white men. Can't get work from no one, and to borrow money to got about and abused by all classes of white men. Can't get work from no one, and to borrow money to get bread with, that is out of the question. I did a great deal better there than I ever did here." Here the defendant took his seat to await the sentence of the court, which was that he be sent to the chain gang at hard labor for one month and pay the costs of prosecution. Stewart said he did not mind the hard labor, and was thankful for the prospect of getting something to eat in jail. He declared that as soon as he got out he would go South and become a slave again.

BURLINGTON, N. J., Nov. 18.—An "affair of honor" took place this morning in our immediate vicinity. The parties are two respectable citizens from Philadelphia. Shots were exchanged and the matter amicably arranged, not, however, without the parties being both wounded. One was hit in the left arm, the other in the right thigh, producing a flesh wound. The difficulty is understood to have occurred in consequence of a quarrel concerning a female.

The party left the city early this morning, and

The party left the city early this morning, and the hostile meeting, which was managed very quietly, took place a short distance from Burlington. After the exchange of shots and the wounding of the principals, the friends of the latter interfered, and a reconciliation was effected.

BURED TREASURE.—A joint stock company has been formed at San Francisco for the attempted recovery of the fifteen millions of dollars that are said to have been buried upon the Cocos Islands, in the year 1819, by a piratical crew who obtained it from a Spanish galleon which left Acapulco to carry it to Spain. The capital of the company is $55,0,000, in shares of $25. It has commenced operations, having purchased the schooner Julius Pringle, which was despatched in August last, well supplied with surf boats, sub-marine armor, experienced divers, and all the machinery and implements necessary to a thorough search.

EXECUTION OF A NEGRO FOR ARSON.—Yesterday cinity of the county jail were crowded with negroes and white persons, awaiting the coming of Washington, a slave belonging to Mr. Thomas O. Burton, who had been convicted of burning the hay-rick and barn of Benjamin W. Green, on the 29th July last, and sentenced to suffer the extreme penalty of the law. About half past ten o'clock, the prisoner appeared in a cart, seated on his coffin, and attired in blue pants, a white shirt, and felt hat. He was attended by the sheriff and jailor. He seemed calm, and, on the way to the place of execution, (the place where Reid and Clements were hung, near the poor house,) appeared to be praying. By the time the procession of death had arrived at the gallows, a large crowd had gathered there, numbering perhaps cinity of the county iail were crowded with house,) appeared to be praying. By the time the procession of death had arrived at the gallows, a large crowd had gathered there, numbering perhaps one thousand persons. The cart being driven under the gallows, the prisoner being asked by the officer if he had anything to say to his friends or those around him. He answered that he had not, and that he was innocent. Being told that he had to die, and that there was no earthly chance of his living but a few short moments longer, he still declared himself not guilty, and, pointing to the rope in his hand, said that he was as innocent of the crime of which he had been convicted as that rope.

He went on to say that he had heard a negro called Sugar Billy, employed on Mr. Green's farm, say that he intended to get rid of Mr. Baughan the overseer, and that he (Washington) had actually gone with Billy to a conjurers, near Mr. Prentice's, to get some stuff to trick Mr. Green with. He acquitted Steven, the negro, who swore in court to having seen Washington fire the hay rick of any participation in the firing of the vick, and said that they slept together on the night of the fire, and he thought Steven was forced by Mr. Anthony to swear what he had sworn.

He said that he did not wish to die, but was not afraid, as he knew that he was innocent.

At 11 o'clock precisely the cap was placed over the prisoner's face, and his hands tied behind him. The cart was then driven on, and the negro swung off. He died with but few struggles, and after remaining a half hour, was taken down and buried.

The unfortunate man, during his confinement in jail, was attended by the Rev. Messes. Boggs and Dodd, but made no confession to them of his guitts.

This is the first case of conviction for arson in this State in which the criminal underwent the extreme penalty of the law.

In cases of writs of error to a federal court, the writ should be allowed, citation signed, and bond approved, by a circuit judge; where the writ is to a State court, the same must be done either by a justice of the supreme court, or by the presiding judge of the court whose judgment is complained of. With the transcript of the record for the supreme court, should be returned the writ, citation, with service, and a copy of the bond, filing in the office below the bond and copies of the writ and citation.

The Know Nothings.—In our issue of Thursday last, we briefly stated it was rumored that those mysterious persons, the "Know Nothings," had made their appearance in our midst. We are fully confirmed of the fact now, judging, as we do, from the movements of certain persons in certain localities, nearly every night. Besides, it is the common talk all over the town, and we have authority for saying that up to this time they number some three hundred and fifty members! If this be true, they have not only strength enough to control any and every election that may hereafter be held in the corporation, but even in the county of Prince Edward.

She is conversant with many languages, ancient and modern, has travelled much, is a person of fine natural intellect, and possessed of a happy and huxurious home. Her present enterprise is but one of many such benevolent efforts by which she has distinguished herself.

FACT NUMBER TWO.

There is now a messenger in the office of the Secretary of the Interior, by the name of Luke Secretary of the Interior, by the name of Lune Daley, a Roman Catholic Irishman, who is exceed-ingly abusive of Native Americans. The history of his appointment is as follows: Secretary McClel-land, to make place for this foreigner, transferred Mr. Moran from the Department of the Interior to the Land Office, removing John Scrivener, a Methodist local preacher, to make provision for this foreign Roman Catholic. Luke Daley receives $700 as messenger in the Department of the Interior, with 20 per cent in addition, making $840 per annum. He is also a night watchman in the Indian office at a salary of $500, with 20 per cent. addition, making his aggregate salary $1,440. Should not this foreigner have been satisfied with a salary of $840 per annum, and permitted a na-tive born to receive the salary of the watchman! He was heard to boast of his influence with Secre tary McClelland, and stated that if he heard any remarks from any government employee, disap-proving of his receiving two salaries, that he would have them removed from office.

We have several more facts, which shall appearance.

CITY INTELLIGENCE.

PUBLIC SCALES FOR WRIGHING COAL.-We her ints in every quarter of the city that many complaints in every quarter of the city that many of our coal merchants are very inaccurate in weighing the coal which they deal out to their patrons; and that generally the purchaser is the loser. A gentleman informs us that after buying a quarter of a ton of coal, which ought to have weighed 560 pounds, he determined to weigh it, in order to satisfy himself in regard to the stories in circulation about light weight, and, upon doing so, found that the quarter of a ton weighed only four hundred and seventy nounds—circly. See four hundred and seventy pounds-eighty-five ounds short.

In a ton of Cumberland coal (which should weigh 2,240 pounds,) there are twenty-eight bushels of fine and thirty-two bushels of lump coal. Dealers, we are informed, generally give the same number of bushels of fine and lump coal for the quarter of a ton, namely, seven bushels—the quarter of twenty-eight—and in this way, when they sell lump coal by the bushel, give eighty pounds about 2 company of the first bushel, give eighty pounds about 2 company of the first bushel, give eighty pounds. short. Some of the coal merchants, as all are re quired by law to do, weigh their coal instead o measuring it; but even when they do so, some times sell short weight.

The remedy suggested by a friend for the evil complained of above, is the weighing of all coal sold in the city, at public scales. No good reason exists, our friend asserts, why coal should not be weighed, as well as hay, straw, &c.

Another friend suggests that the plan he has adopted to secure good weight, at reasonable prices, is to buy his year's supply at the Cumberland mines, where it can be bought at $1 62 1-2 per ton for the run of the mines, and $2 00 per ton for lump coal. The prices of Cumberland coal here is $6 50 or $4 50 higher than at the mines. Query: What is the freight price per ton, for bringing coal two hundred miles by the canal?

Making the total cost of the Capitol and grounds - - - $2,690,459 00

The additions making now to this building, with the extension of the grounds, will add some five millions of dollars to the cost. The accommodations, now to be provided, will probably require no further increase for a century to come.

THE TURE.—On Saturday afternoon a match rac took place for $500 a side, mile heats, over the Columbia course, Alexandria. The horses entered were, John Graham, by F. S. Suit, and Mary Payne by Mr. Maddox. The horse was rode by the bro ther of the owner, and carried 115 lbs. The mare carried catch weight, and was rode by the favorite rider, little Billy Anderson. The hour for starting having arrived, the judges gave the word, and off they started, the mare taking the lead and contin uing to the end, coming in a considerable distance ahead of the horse. Time, two minutes, which does not show any extraordinary speed.

After the first heat the horse was withdra and the mare galloped alone around the course and took the money. In consequence of the mare being the favorite in the beginning, though odds were freely offered, there was but little betting The attendance was fair, consisting in part of ladie in carriages, which gave a lively effect to the race Were, however, the proprietors to charge for admission twenty-five cents instead of fifty cents, we think the visiters would be still more numerous.

INCENDIARISM.—Last night about eleven o'clock the carpenter shop of Wm. H. Thomas, situated on First street, at the foot of Capitol Hill, took fire and soon burnt to the ground. The shop contained two sets of tools, which, together with the shop and other contents, were valued at $500. Insurance policy had just expired.

CABBAGES .- For the information of the agric tural portion of our readers we publish the follow-ing: "Cabbages may be headed in winter by setting them with their roots in good rich earth just as they grew, and covering the tops so they will not freeze. This may be done with a roof of boards, hay, or dirt, or brush rails, and straw covered with dirt, with little air holes. Cabbage grown in this way is bleached, sweet, and tender, and will pay nuch more than the cost of thus arranging the late stalks which failed to form heads in the fall. The work should be done just before the ground freezes and at first only slightly cover the tops."

OUTRAGE IN CHURCH.—The usual quiet of the Union Church in the First ward, is being disturbed of late, on Sabbath nights, by a few half-grown boys, some respectable and some that go there for that purpose. The annoyance consists in loud talking, laughing, and other indecent deportment. Last night, whilst Mr. Israel was preaching a very powerful discourse to a good house, a young man of espectable parentage, was very annoying to the ongregation, but was finally persuaded to go out. He returned, however, in time to accost one of the officers of the church, and a general melee was only prevented by his being taken before a magis-trate, and fined five dollars and costs. We hope;

or the future, such scenes will not occur.

FALSE ALARM OF FIRE IN THE FIRST WAR DISGRACEFUL RIOT.—Another disgraceful riot, (which, unfortunately, too often characterizes our city,) took place yesterday about noon in front of the President's, in which a number of the hopefuls, between eighteen and twenty years old, were en-gaged. Brickbats, paving-stones, &c., were freely used, and the lives of a large number of ladies and children, who were returning from church, endan-gered. Luckily, Captain Birch and several of his sistants, were promptly on the ground and arrested some of the parties, and, it is understood, has caused warrants to be issued for the arrest of others.

COLLISION .- There has, for some time, a rivalry been existing between the boats George Washing-ton and the George Page, arising from their rela-tive speed. It appears that on Saturday a collision took place between them, and serious damage was done to both boats, the George Washington suffer-ing the greatest damage. We have not as yet as-certained where the blame rests; but we think the proprietors of both boats should give positive intructions to the captains thereof, to forbid racing.

JOHN N. LOVEJOY, Esq.-This venerable and aged citizen, well known to our community as its oldest inhabitant, died on Saturday morning in the 86th year of his age. DISGRACEFUL.-A disgusting scene took place this morning on Seventh street. Two dogs, one a mastiff, and the other a Newfoundland had a terrible fight. It lasted for nearly a quarter of an hour, and would have continued still longer had not one of our police officers come up and separated them. There were at least one hundred persons present, including the owners of the dogs, not one of whom attempted to part them. They were both seriously hurt, and presented a hideous appearance. It does not speak very favorably for the humanity of the lookers on who could witnes such a cruel exhibition.

A Fracas.—An encounter took place on Saturday afternoon between a manager and a popular vocalist, arising from some misunderstanding between them. Little or no injury resulted to the persons of either, and the matter was afterwards nicably adjusted.

THE CEMETERY.—Of late, there have been many beautiful improvements in the various burial-places in this vicinity. Not a few graves have been enclosed with tastefully-constructed iron railings, and clegant monuments erected in memory of the still-loved but unconscious dead. During the summer past, choice flowers bloomed round fondly-cherished tombs; but those have perished, leaving alone the expressive evergreen, the emblem of eternity. Though there may often be an ostentatious display of elaborately-dressed marble, much should be pardoned to the promptings of affection. No one posseased of pecuniary means, whose heart still glows with love for the departed, would consider that he could rear a memorial sufficiently worthy of the dust beneath its base.

The Congressional Cemetery is in a better condition than formerly, but there is still occasion for further attention to the grounds on the part of those who are incorporated as the proprietors.

A few days since we noticed, while in that Cemetery, that Mr. Jacob Gideon has recently added to the lot where sleep the ashes of his wife, four Italian marble statuettes, about four feet and a half in height, representing Contemplation, Charity, Hope, and Divine Love. These, with the monument, the iron enclosure, and other embellishments, cost, we learn, $2,000.—Sentinel. THE CEMETERY .- Of late, there have been many Washington Navy Yard.—Another week of unprecedented activity has passed away. Nearly eleven hundred sturdy skilful workmen appear on the rolls. Of these we have one hundred and eighty two ship-carpenters, and seventy-two laborers. The stem of the new steam frigate, fitted in its place, looks well; eight frames complete are raised, and next week we hope to put up three, four, or probably five per day. Tuesday is fixed for raising the stem post. Other parts of the vessel are progressing, and, with regular supplies of timber, we shall soon be even, if not in advance, of other yards who were more fortunate in having materials on hand. Naval Constructor-Pook is not only skifful in his profession, but gentlemanly and energetic. Within the enclosures of this fine government station we now appear to have a world in miniature. Here is the engineer and machinists' department, from which is turned out massive steam machinery of resistless power, and in finish unsurpassed; the copper rolling mill is of itself an establishment which challenges the admiration of every beholder, whilst the cash book of Uncle Sam attests its great utility. The manufacture of bnoys and anchors for light boats on our coast, ordered by the Treasury Department, and rather a new feature in our operations, has proved eminently advantageous and satisfactory. Proceeding to the blacksmith's shops, which are soon to be substituted by new and better buildings, we have several specimens of chain cables, some of which have saved our line of battle ships in the most terrific storms. The anchors are of the same quality.—Baltimore Sun.

Yesterday morning, in great peace, John N. Lovelov, sr., at the advanced age of 85 years. The deceased was, perhaps, one of the oldest residents of our city, and none enjoyed more fully the love and respect of all who were favored with his equaintance.

His funeral will take place from the Foundry
